

Dupart Agency Secures Exclusive Access to Brazil's Exotic Locations

Monday 10 June, 2024

Dupart Agency, an exclusive luxury travel agency is thrilled to announce the addition of unique itineraries and accommodations in some of Brazil's most exotic and breathtaking locations, including the Pantanal and the Cerrado. This development underscores Dupart Agency's commitment to providing unparalleled travel experiences for its discerning members.

Exclusive Access

Dupart Agency has forged partnerships with local communities and conservationists in Brazil to offer its members unprecedented access to private animal sanctuaries and untouched natural habitats. These collaborations ensure that clients can experience Brazil's diverse wildlife and landscapes responsibly and sustainably.

The Pantanal, the world's largest tropical wetland, and the Cerrado, a rich savanna ecosystem, are renowned for their extraordinary biodiversity. Dupart Agency's exclusive itineraries allow members to explore these remarkable areas while enjoying premium accommodations.

Commitment to Sustainability & Local Engagement

Dupart Agency's approach to luxury travel emphasizes sustainability and respect for local cultures and environments. By collaborating with local communities, the agency not only provides unique travel experiences but also supports local economies and conservation efforts, ensuring that natural habitats are preserved and tourism benefits the local population.

The expansion into Brazil has been significantly supported by strategy consultant Leon Jaramillo. His extensive experience and expertise have been crucial in forming key partnerships and securing contracts with high-end accommodations and local providers.

"Collaboration with local communities and conservationists has been pivotal in offering these unique experiences to Dupart's members," commented Jaramillo. "Guests can enjoy guided tours led by local experts, intimate wildlife encounters, and access to exclusive locations off the beaten path, all while minimizing their environmental impact."

Enhanced Travel Experiences

Each itinerary crafted by Dupart Agency includes access to luxury accommodations and exclusive locations that few travelers have the opportunity to experience. Whether it's staying in a secluded villa in the Pantanal or a private island in the Cerrado, Dupart Agency ensures that every detail is meticulously planned. The travel experiences are designed not only to meet the high expectations of their elite clientele but also to immerse them in Brazil's vibrant ecosystems and cultures.

"We are committed to providing travel experiences that are not only luxurious but also respectful of the natural environment and local cultures," Jaramillo continued. "This initiative in Brazil reflects our dedication to sustainable and meaningful travel."
