A Very Merry Thank You from EAT. this Christmas

A final festive farewell filled with luxuriously indulgent treats: A NEW Christmas Dinner and a Double Smoked Salmon Bloomer will sit alongside EAT.'s festive classics; Pigs in Blankets, and a Roast in a Yorkshire Pudding Wrap 28 October 2019: 'Tis EAT.'s last Christmas and the perfect opportunity to say a festive Very Merry Thank You to loyal friends and customers. From 6th November, EAT. stores will be full to the brim with old festive favourites and will unveil some brand new luxuriously indulgent products making for a very tasty little Christmas.

Emily Williams, Head of Food at EAT., comments: 'At EAT., Christmas has always been our favourite time of year, we love raiding the tastiest ingredients from the Christmas larder to treat our customers' tastebuds. Our Pigs in Blankets have become legendary, our Festive Full Works Bloomer a chart-topper and last year our Roast in a Yorkshire Pudding Wrap was one of our best-selling products.

'This year will be no different, and, for one last time, old favourites will sit alongside some of the most luxurious and indulgent products we've ever created, including our first ever full Christmas Dinner Hot Pot; and a Double Smoked Salmon Bloomer.'

Mike Rainer, Managing Director at EAT., adds: 'Although EAT. has gradually been transitioning stores to Pret over the last few months, Christmas is such a special time and we want to take the opportunity to savour this last festive season and say a Very Merry Thank You to our customers, inviting them to celebrate over 20 years of Real Food with us.'
