Embrace the 'Glottaging' Experience at Glastonbury Festival 2015

Tuesday 19 May, 2015

With Glastonbury Festival just over a month away, leading holiday letting specialist holidaycottages.co.uk has created a list of properties within 30 minutes of the festival arena for festival goers seeking the VIP 'glottaging' experience.

If you're lucky enough to be heading to Glastonbury Festival this year, to rub shoulders with the likes of Kanye West, Foo Fighters and Pharrell, take a look at these comfortable cottages close to the festival arena for a true VIP experience.

Westbank is a stylish boutique property nestled in the historic village of Wookey Hole. Though it sits in an idyllic rural location, Westbank is just 20 minutes from the action at Glastonbury Festival. Sleeping four Westbank is perfect for families or groups of friends wanting to enjoy Glastonbury like a VIP. Westbank is available from 24 June for four nights from £598, visit www.holidaycottages.co.uk/somerset for more information.

Higher Nythe Farmis part of a beautiful 17th century farmhouse just 25 minutes from Glastonbury Festival. If you're looking for a bit of luxury for your festival experience, Higher Nythe Farm is a great choice for a group or family. Sleeping eight, Higher Nythe Farm is available for four nights from 24 June from £598 visitwww.holidaycottages.co.uk/somerset for more information.

Windsorgrove Cottage is a recently refurbished cottage in the quirky village of High Ham. The beautiful rural setting means you can enjoy the festival vibe with a cider in the sun, even when you're all partied out from your day at Glastonbury. Windsor Grove is just 30 minutes from the festival and is available for four nights from 24 June from £400 for two people, visit www.holidaycottages.co.uk/somerset for more information.
