EMCC Global & International Mentoring Association - a new partnership

Monday 21 September, 2020

Brussels, 21 September 2020 – EMCC Global and International Mentoring Association (IMA) are delighted to announce that they have created a partnership for the purpose of collaborating on the enhancement of the praxis and research of mentoring. They will work together to the benefit of their membership, providers, recipients of their professional services, and the society at large.

Always committed to promoting high quality and ethical practice in mentoring, coaching, and supervision for the global community, these efforts will be supported through a wide range of joint initiatives including webinars, publications, Continuous Professional Development (CPD) events etc.

Dr Brenda Marina, IMA President said 'Over the past decade, IMA has connected with the EMCC family to work towards a partnership. This synergistic relationship will contribute to the re-design of the future for mentoring.'

Marialexia Margariti, EMCC Global Vice-president Quality noted 'It is such a joy to see an initial exploratory discussion on partnership possibilities between EMCC Global and IMA to have come to fruition. The two professional bodies share a passion about mentoring and they will work together aiming to its evolution and enhanced professionalisation.'
