London, 16th May 2023 – L DOT, a talented emerging artist, recently graced the stage of The Late-ish Show with Mo Gilligan alongside celebrity guests Rio Ferdinand, Jessie Ware, Jack Whitehall, and N-Dubz. On the show, L DOT performed a short snippet of her new single "Risk," which cleverly name drops Mo, and got her through to the final show off. The track, inspired by the challenges of modern dating, was released on Friday May 12th 2023 and has since gained over 40K views across Tik Tok and Instagram.

The Late-ish Show, known for its stellar line-up and entertaining segments, provided the perfect platform for L DOT to showcase her unique sound and talent. During the appearance, viewers were treated to a sneak peek of "Risk" before L DOT took the stage with N-Dubz for an unforgettable joint performance. The chemistry between L DOT and the group electrified the atmosphere, leaving the audience craving more of her dominant stage presence.

In remarkable style, L DOT emerged victorious, securing the coveted prize of the episode—a trip to the vibrant city of New York. L DOT's triumph not only demonstrates her undeniable talent but also reflects the connection she established with the audience and judges, leaving a lasting impression with her captivating performance.

The infectious melodies and thought-provoking lyrics of "Risk" showcase L DOT's ability to create music that resonates deeply with listeners. Drawing from personal experiences in the contemporary dating scene, the song offers an honest and relatable perspective on settling down in love and relationships. The fusion of L DOT's distinctive vocal style and the infectious beat seamlessly complement the experiences she conveys on track.

"It was an incredible experience to be on The Late-ish Show with such a talented and fun group of people," said L DOT. "Mo Gilligan is an amazing host, and I had a blast performing with N-Dubz. Winning the prize was just the cherry on top!" When asked about her new single L DOT said "I'm really excited to make 'Risk' my first release of the year. It feels like the perfect time to release music with a summer vibe."

With her recent appearance on The Late-ish Show and the release of "Risk," L DOT is poised to make waves in the music industry. Her unique sound, combined with her ability to captivate audiences, is garnering attention from fans and industry professionals alike. Be sure to keep an eye out for L DOT !
