EmployEasily Legal Services LTD Announces Name Change to Employment Law Services (ELS) LTD

Sunday 27 December, 2020

Specialists you need. Experience you can trust.

Glasgow, Scotland, 27 December 2020. EmployEasily Legal Services Ltd, a multi-award-winning employment law firm, announced today that it has changed its name to Employment Law Services (ELS) LTD. Since the company was founded in 2008, it has focused primarily on delivering employment law services to SMEs throughout the UK, but over the last 12 months the business has increasingly been serving individuals as well as SMEs and has decided to broaden its service offering to meet this increase in demand.

A desire to more accurately represent what the company does for the broader client base it now serves is what prompted the decision to make this name change and the company believes the new name effectively achieves this.

The company's commitment to its clients remains its highest priority and the change in name will have no impact on the team's ability to deliver the high standards of employment law services and professionalism its clients are accustomed to receiving.

“Since the business was founded in 2008, we have worked hard to distinguish ourselves as a leading provider of employment law services by consistently exceeding client expectations”, said Managing Director Gary H Sutherland. “Our new company name more accurately reflects our position as specialists in delivering employment law services to the much broader client base we now serve and will help cement our brand in a very congested and highly competitive market.”

About Employment Law Services (ELS) LTD

Our multi-award-winning employment law team has been providing specialist advice on contentious and non-contentious employment law and HR issues since 2008 and for over a decade our clients have benefited from practical and purposeful guidance aimed at delivering preferred outcomes for clients, whenever possible.
