

Essex Plumbing and Heating Company works alongside housing association

Saturday 15 November, 2025

Into Plumbing and Heating Ltd Partners with National Housing Association to Deliver Top-Quality Maintenance Services

Into Plumbing and Heating Ltd has announced an exciting partnership with a leading National Housing Association to provide reliable and efficient plumbing and heating maintenance services to thousands of homes across Essex and East London. This collaboration marks a significant milestone for the Essex-based company, solidifying its position as a trusted provider in the industry.

The partnership will see Into Plumbing and Heating Ltd taking charge of essential plumbing and heating maintenance for properties managed by the housing association, ensuring tenants receive prompt and professional service whenever issues arise. With over 15 years of experience in the industry, the company's team of skilled engineers is well-equipped to handle everything from routine maintenance to emergency repairs.

Darren Dimmick, founder of Into Plumbing and Heating Ltd, shared his excitement about the new venture: "We are proud to join forces with one of the UK's largest housing associations to deliver essential services to their residents. This partnership is a testament to our commitment to quality, reliability, and customer satisfaction. We look forward to making a positive impact on communities across the country."

The collaboration comes at a crucial time, as winter approaches and the demand for heating and plumbing services increases. Into Plumbing and Heating Ltd has already implemented a robust plan to ensure efficient service delivery, including dedicated teams for emergency call-outs and regular maintenance visits.

A Commitment to Excellence

Known for their impeccable service and customer-first approach, Into Plumbing and Heating Ltd has earned a reputation for excellence in the plumbing and heating sector. Their partnership with the National Housing Association further highlights their ability to meet the needs of diverse clients, from individual homeowners to large-scale organizations.

By providing tailored maintenance solutions, the company aims to improve the quality of living for residents while ensuring the housing association's properties remain in optimal condition year-round.
