EUREECA, ONLINE EQUITY CROWDFUNDING PLATFORM, INVESTS IN CLIENT EDUCATION THROUGH A SERIES OF WEBINARS.

Tuesday 4 August, 2020

As part of their commitment to education, excellence and continuous client service improvement, Eureeca, the equity crowdfunding platform with international reach, has announced today the launch of a series of Webinars over the next three months allowing companies interested in raising capital to learn all the insights of successful fundraising.

Since its launch in 2015, Eureeca's proven track record has allowed the company to build a vast network of investors, as well as companies raising funds globally. In the series of events announced, Eureeca will not only educate but also offer valuable insights in equity crowdfunding by joining forces with some of their past and present clients who will be sharing the secrets of their fundraising success. Thus offering insights to everyone who's interested in raising capital through online equity crowdfunding.

In an effort to ensure that all interested parties will be able to participate and have access to the events, the Webinars will be held FREE OF CHARGE through a range of channels including Facebook and Zoom, enabling audiences of all backgrounds to join.

In the first of many, Eureeca will be hosting a Webinar joined by one of their clients, Fruitful day. The first Webinar will be titled 'Raising Capital for your Business in the 21st Century' and the speakers will be discussing concepts such as:

- Why Crowdfunding
- How to scale your business and explore the potential of global expansion
- Preparing for your fundraising campaigns and marketing for your fundraising round

During the Webinar, which will be moderated by Siddarth Dalamal (Head of Investor Relations at Eureeca), the attendees will have the opportunity to listen to Fruitful Day Founder Marie-Christine Luijckx and gain insights from her experience with equity crowdfunding as well as how Eureeca has enabled and facilitated the process of raising capital via their platform.
