

EURONEXT APPOINTS HEAD OF EXCHANGE TRADED FUNDS & INVESTMENT FUNDS

Monday 13 October, 2014

Euronext today announced the appointment of Benjamin Fussien as Head of Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs) & Investment Funds at Euronext. His role will be to drive further growth in Euronext's ETF business, which already is a leading venue for ETF listing and trading in continental Europe. Furthermore Benjamin will spearhead the development of Euronext's Investment Fund business across Europe.

Benjamin Fussien has a strong track record of building a highly successful ETF trading business as Managing Director and member of the Execution Services Executive Committee at Societe Generale and after that at Carax.

Benjamin will be based in Paris and will report to Danielle Ballardie.

Danielle Ballardie, Head of Cash Markets & Deputy Head of Markets & Global Sales at Euronext, said: "We are delighted to strengthen our team and further boost talent in our growing Cash Markets Business with this appointment during an important period of opportunity for Euronext to reinvigorate and optimise our offering."

Benjamin Fussien added: "I'm delighted to join Euronext which, as an independent company, is now in a stronger position than ever. The ETFs & Investment funds business is compelling and provides a powerful foundation for service expansion and development. I look forward to working closely with our key partners; ETF issuers, liquidity providers, brokers, mutual funds, buy side dealers, professional bodies and regulators."
