Evolution Money Ltd is proud and delighted to announce they have won the prestigious award for Best Adverse Secured Loan Product of the Year 2014 at this year's Loan Talk Secured Loan Awards. Further cementing their strong name as a specialist niche lender in the second charge sector.

Gathering together the industry's elite from across the country, the respected annual event took place on Thursday 15 January 2015 at London's 8 Northumberland Avenue and highlights the previous year's industry successes and accomplishments.

Rhian Roberts, Head of Evolution Money Broker Division commented 'What an accolade for Evolution Money, the award for Best Adverse Secured Product 2014 is an honour indeed. It was a tough category with some very well established competition and we are totally overwhelmed by the level of continued support we receive from our brokers. The award nomination talked about the extensive stress testing and affordability checks we do which allow us to operate in this sector.

This impressive triumph recognises Evolution Money's comprehensive choice of secured loan products designed to suit differing customer needs and requirements, along with highlighting the company's ongoing successful growth and reputation within the Secured Loan industry.

Winners were decided by Loan Talk's dual panel of lender and broker experts, which you can see on the Loan Talk website. Here you will also find more information about the other successful companies who won awards at the Loan Talk Secured Loan Awards 2014.
