Evolution Money now a member of the Finance & Leasing Association

Thursday 9 October, 2014

Evolution Money is proud to announce their very recent membership into the Finance and Leasing Association, which marks an important step towards being even more recognised as a reputable and responsible lender.

The Evolution team are extremely proud to have reached this milestone, which recognises continued growth, delivery and customer satisfaction.

Making sure to adhere to a strict code of ethics, as well as having integrity and transparency at the very core of its vision and mission are among the reasons that Evolution were considered and accepted to be a member of this rapidly expanding network of leading financial institutions.

This can be considered a benchmark in terms of where the company is headed, as well as keeping an eye to the future in terms of continued growth and expansion.

About the FLA

The Finance and Leasing Association was formed in 1992 as a result of the merging between the Equipment Leasing Association and the Finance Houses Association.

They are considered to be the leading trade body for the asset and consumer finance sectors in the UK, as well as the largest of its kind in Europe.

The FLA focuses on making sure that their members' views are heard by looking to shape the business environment around them in which they operate.

Just some of the benefits of being a member of the FLA include staying up-to-date with the latest developments in the industry as well as ample opportunities to developing the internal workforce and meeting the right contacts through networking and partnership events.

Our membership

Evolution intend to take a very active role within the FLA and have joined the Secured Lending Group.

The Group which has representation by the leading secured lenders in the UK considers the secured lending marketplace, and works with the FLA to ensure that members' views are fully considered within the regulatory and operational UK frameworks.
