Evolution Money win second prestigious industry award in 2015

Tuesday 21 April, 2015

Evolution Money are once again celebrating today after impressively scooping their second award so far this year, and winning the coveted Financial Reporter Awards, Best Secured Loan Lender 2015.

Rhian Roberts, Head of Evolution Money Broker Division commented:

'What a fantastic result for Evolution Money to be awarded Best Secured Loan Lender of the Year in this year's Financial Reporter awards. This award once again proves that our robust stress testing, responsible lending and dynamic product mix is very highly thought of throughout the industry. A huge thank you to all our brokers and introducers who have voted for us, it truly is an a amazing result'

The significant accolade which garners votes from industry peers and professionals alike not only recognises top-notch excellence across the lending arena but how important and well-respected Evolution Money has become within the industry over the past four years. Offering a wide-ranging suite of secured loan products which match customers' needs and requirements, Evolution Money has grown significantly to be a key player in the second charge sector.

Earlier on in the year the specialist lender won Best Adverse Secured Loan Product of the Year 2014 at this year's Loan Talk Secured Loan Awards. Today's award follows on from last year's 2014 Financial Reporter Awards where Evolution Money received a Highly Commended rosette as Best Specialist Lender.

Operations Director Kerriann Turtill said about winning the award:

"Once again Evolution Money continue to stand-out as a market leader. These awards are key industry benchmarks which recognise our innovative approach, and we are very excited and proud to have won Best Secured Loan Lender 2015. Relationships with our partners are important to us - We know our products meet the needs of ours and our broker partners' customers, and the award is key to acknowledging that as it was voted for by our industry peers and professionals which we work with on a daily basis"

The winners' presentation ceremony will take place on 19th May 2015, at Manchester Museum of Science & Industry. Attended by this year's victors, runner-ups and industry professionals, the event should prove to be an evening to remember.
