We Still Get Goosebumps!"

Exclusive! Slash and Myles Kennedy talk about new album World On Fire with Nicky Horne on TeamRock Radio's Classic Rock Magazine Show – 22nd September

Plus: New Album World On Fire available only as a limited-edition Classic Rock fanpack from Sept 15

Following their electrifying launch for new album World On Fire at The Houses Of Parliament in June, Slash and co-conspirator/Alter Bridge man Myles Kennedy have returned to the UK to record a fantastic in-depth interview exclusively with Nicky Horne for the Classic Rock Magazine Show on TeamRock radio, to be aired September 22 at 6pm.

In an hour-long session that touches on all aspects of the new album and unique relationship between the two men, they reveal:

1) Slash's personal insecurities in his own guitar skills: "I struggle to be as good as I think I am in my head!"

2) As an ex-music teacher Myles has shown Slash a thing or two: "But he'll play it through once, then play it perfectly!"

3) Though seasoned rock veterans both, the thrill of making music remains the same: "We still get goosebumps!"

4) The touching chemistry between the two longstanding friends, who've been through good and bad times together: "We don't dwell on it, but we share a little here and there."

Tune in on Monday September 22nd at 6pm to TeamRock Radio on DAB,www.teamrockradio.com and via Radioplayer and TuneIn apps for the full interview, which will be teased all week on the station and online atwww.teamrock.com.

World On Fire has also been released as a Classic Rock fan pack with the full CD and 132-page magazine - an unprecedented third in partnership with Slash and Roadrunner Records - and is available to order now from myfavouritemagazines.co.uk/slash.
