Experience Your Own Slice of Paradise With a Stay on Necker Island

Wednesday 15 July, 2015

Sir Richard Branson's private island in the British Virgin Islands - Necker Island, may be his home and favourite hideaway, but he doesn't mind sharing. With individual rooms now available for some last minute sunshine…what better way to see out the summer.

From tennis lessons with our resident professional to relaxing on your own beach, 'Celebration Weeks' on Necker Island are a fantastic way to experience a slice of life in paradise without having to book the entire island.

Guests can book a three, four or seven night stay for the week of the 26th July. Guests can also book a seven night stay for the following dates:

- 8th August

- 5th September

- 12th September

- 19th September

- 26th September (adults only)

- 17th October

- 24th October

Rates per couple start from USD $12,345 (at today's exchange rate £7,967) based on a three night stay in a Great House room.

Necker Island offers an abundance of activities for the little ones to get stuck into so why not take the whole family. From beach Olympics to water sports & treasure hunts, there are plenty of fun filled activities for every age, ensuring there's never a dull moment!
