Export Portal Announces Launching Of New Site To Help Businesses Grow Internationally

Friday 31 March, 2017

GLENDALE, California, -
ExportPortal.com, the most awaited international trading portal, announced today that they opened the gates to their brand new site for export and import companies. This new global business venture is open to all sellers, buyers, and shippers who are involved in international trade. Thousands of companies worldwide have been waiting to start conducting their business on the site because of the site's secured international trade.

Based in Los Angeles,
CA, Export Portal is a gateway for large scale business to business global transactions. Export Portal will provide what is missing in the global market — the ability to discover new ways of product distribution with lowered risks and maximized profits, by unifying legal services and international payments and shipping under the same umbrella.

Through Export Portal, businesses will find new ways of marketing their products internationally. The site serves as a seller's virtual showroom where their products are displayed to potential buyers around the world. Foreign trade is made simpler and safer by export import legal documents, laws, and regulations available to all Export Portal members.

Companies worldwide have started their certification process. With ExportPortal.com's services, verified members will:

- Conduct business
safely with other verified members;

- Get connected with professional legal service providers globally;

- Have secured
payments;

- Gain access to a 24/7
highly trained customer service;

- Work with reliable,
top rated international shippers and forwarders; and

- Be able to reach out to more businesses worldwide.

Export Portal
facilitate transactions between sellers, buyers, and shippers. They seek to not only work with established global businesses but, also companies looking to expand their business worldwide. Export Portal is your reliable and trustworthy export and import partner.
