29 October 2014 Today (29 October 2014) Nationwide Building Society announces the launch of FlexOne, the Society's first current account aimed at young people.

FlexOne is more than just a current account; it provides a range of competitive benefits to suit the lifestyles of young people aged 11 to 17<sup>1</sup> while also helping to educate them about money.

It's an easy-to-use current account that gives young people control over their finances. It includes features such as access to a competitive savings account, no fees, innovations such as 24/7 customer support via a dedicated FlexOne Twitter Handle, contactless cards and Nationwide's top-rated mobile banking app. FlexOne also comes with a range of added value extras including 25% off at Vue cinemas and online content designed to provide customers with help and guidance on safely managing their money.

Paul Wootton, Nationwide's Head of Product Management for Current Accounts, said: "Before we started developing FlexOne, we asked young people what's important to them. They said they wanted a current account that's easy to use, has no fees or charges, helps them stay in control of their money, offers added value benefits such as a gift or special offers, gives interest when saving money and provides help and advice<sup>2</sup>. FlexOne has been designed with this in mind."

Benefits of the new account include:

- Credit interest of 1% p.a./ AER on credit balances up to £1,000.
- Fee-free. The account has no fees or charges.
- Exclusive access to a competitive savings account (FlexOne Regular Saver), 3.50% gross p.a./AER*.
- A dedicated @YourFlexOne Twitter handle to answer customer questions 24 hours a day, in addition to existing support channels (online, branch and telephone).
- Contactless technology, enabling young people to pay for items up to £20 in a fast, easy and safe way (available if they select a Visa debit card and not a cash card).
- Online Banking, Mobile Banking, Text Alerts and Impulse Saver giving the flexibility to easily manage money at any time on the go.
- 25% off at Vue Cinemas for a year for FlexOne members and a friend or parent, helping customers save money on the things they most enjoy. Based on a child and parent going to the cinema once a week, they could save over £200<sup>3</sup> across the year.
- A range of interactive and enjoyable educational support and tools, via the Nationwide Education website, to help young people feel confident when managing their finances and make informed decisions. Resources include videos, fun interactive games, factsheets, worksheets, easy to understand glossaries of financial terms and much more, all targeted at different age groups. See more here www.nationwideeducation.co.uk.
- Monthly competitions, including the chance to win private red carpet cinema screenings for a customer and 100 of their friends.

Paul Wootton, added: "This is the first time Nationwide has offered a current account specifically for young people. We recognise their banking needs are different and that's why we've designed FlexOne with this in mind. We believe we've created not just a strong product, but something that will be relevant to the lifestyles of young people through a range of benefits designed to help them make the most of their money in a safe and secure way. This includes access to a competitive FlexOne Regular Saver at 3.50% gross p.a./AER* and a dedicated Twitter handle – so they can get the support they want, the way they want it.

"FlexOne will help us better serve the needs of our customers, supporting them through their different stages in life. Young people now have an exciting new mutual offering which will provide them with a real alternative to the banks."

Notes to editors:

* AER stands for Annual Equivalent Rate and illustrates what the interest rate would be if interest were paid and compounded once each year. The gross rate of interest is the interest rate payable before any income tax is deducted (if customers do pay tax).

<sup>1</sup> Customers aged 11 to 17 years old can apply for the account, but the account can be held up until the age of 23.

<sup>3</sup> Based on Vue cinema prices in August 2014. Parent and child tickets £17.15 (adult ticket £9.70, child ticket £7.45) x 52 weeks in the year = £891.80 x 25% = £222.95.
