

Flight Panels Launches Cessna 414 AW Stream Deck Series for Flight Simulator 2020

Tuesday 18 July, 2023

July 17, 2023 – Fans of Flysimware's C414 AW Chancellor for Microsoft Flight simulator looking to amplify the immersive experience now have an ally in a new stream deck series from UK start-up, Flight Panels.

Flight Panel's Cessna 414 AW Stream Deck Series is designed for the Cessna 414 AW Chancellor, an add-on aircraft for Microsoft Flight Simulator designed by Flysimware. This innovative stream deck offers access to 15 and 32 key profiles to support the Stream Deck XL, Classic, MK.2 and Stream Deck Mobile. The Cessna 414 AW Stream Deck Series also features over 200 buttons that provide end users with full control over the aircrafts flight controls, circuit breakers, cabin, communications, maintenance and much more.

Launched in March 2023, Flight Panels is a dedicated team of Flight Simulator enthusiasts who specialise in the creation of meticulous and cohesively crafted stream decks. Through the company's unique suite of stream decks, customers can effortlessly manage switches, buttons, dials and knobs from their stream deck device for a truly immersive experience.

Despite being relatively new in the business, Flight Panels is on a mission to become an integral part of every Microsoft Flight Simulator setup with their highly detailed, modern and methodically designed stream deck profiles. Since its inception the company has released a number of highly successful Stream Deck Profiles for the FlyByWire A32NX, Fenix A320, Microsoft ATR 42/72-600 and PMDG 737. The Cessna 414 AW Stream Deck Series is the company's 12th product. Moreover, plans are already afoot to launch two additional products in August.

Flight Panels' Cessna 414 AW Stream Deck Series for Microsoft Flight Simulator is affordably priced and is available for purchase on the company's website. For further information, visit: <https://flightpanels.io>
