Free Support For Charities & Community Groups In Medway

Thursday 23 June, 2022

Medway Voluntary Action (MVA) connects people and communities and are proud to have been delivering support to Medway's voluntary and community sector (VCS) for over 30 years.

Their aim is to make it simple for VCS organisations in Medway of all sizes to access support, encouragement and practical guidance so that they can focus on their day to day running of their charity or group.

With a network of over 1,000 local charities, MVA hold a local map of support and information to help organisations to develop and grow their community initiative – quite simply, they are a charity that helps other charities and local communities to thrive!

Funded by Medway Council, MVA can offer a wide range of support and this includes:

- One-stop shop' of online resources and guides to support communities and organisations/groups.
- Start-Up advice and support for new community ideas and initiatives
- 121 support providing experienced and expert guidance
- Funding & Income Generation Support
- Governance Support
- Funding & Marketing Training & Peer Support Club
- Supported Signposting and Introductions to VCS peers
- Collaborative Working Opportunities
- Back Office Services (EG: Printing, Scanning, Post)
- Networking Opportunities and events
- Training & Development support - including free 'Bitesize' sessions and bespoke 'in-house' solutions
- Monthly Newsletters full of News, Strategic Updates,
- Events, Opportunities & Volunteer Ads.
- Opportunities to earn money for your group whilst getting the voice of your service users heard (Involving Medway Focus Group Programme)
- Befriending Service Hub
- Online Searchable Database with details for 1,000+ local VCS groups/organisations
