Get Instant Payment on Selling your Used Car to We Buy Motors

Monday 30 January, 2017

The hugely successful used car dealer We Buy Motors, continued offering spot payment for used cars. With more than 1,70,000 users of the service, We Buy Motors is a leading player in the segment.

The procedure of selling used cars offered by We Buy Motors is quite simple, a three-fold process that commences and completes in two days. Offered across mainland Britain, it involves logging onto the website to get an instantaneous quote. On acceptance, the payment is released and the car is picked up from the seller's location. This does away with the requirement of the seller having to drive around to various resellers or permitting an inspection of the vehicle at residence, at possibly inconvenient timings.

We Buy Motors has a robust network which makes collection of vehicles from doorsteps a lot easier. We Buy Motors arranges collection of vehicles that are fit to be driven around. The service offers an added advantage of documentation. Pursuant to mandatory regulations that call for proper maintenance of V5C records, it is incumbent on the owner to submit details of transfer of ownership. We Buy Motors takes care of all paperwork, thereby releasing the owner from Driver and Vehicle Licensing Authority (DVLA) formalities.

With a sizeable market share in the used vehicles business, We Buy Motors aims to ramp up procurements and sales of used cars through improved services and quick turnaround. Pivotal to its operations have been the trust of sellers and buyers in the system and transparent procedures.
