FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dingolfi Spirits Ltd. Unveils Dingolfi Highland Single Malt Scotch Whisky

GLASGOW, SCOTLAND – Glasgow-based independent bottler Dingolfi Spirits Ltd. has officially launched its flagship expression: Dingolfi Premium Rich Reserve. This premium Highland single malt brings a bold, authentic flavor profile to the independent Scotch market, celebrating where traditional Scottish craft meets rugged Norse heritage.

The name Dingolfi comes from the Old Norse word Dingulfr, meaning "The Assembly of the Wolf." It honors the ancient northern lands where North Sea travelers and Highland clans once crossed paths to trade, share stories, and find kinship.

Liquid Specifications

- Type: Highland Single Malt Scotch Whisky
- ABV: 46% (Bottled at a robust strength to preserve its natural character)
- Maturation: Aged in hand-selected ex-bourbon oak casks
- Filtration: Non-chill filtered to protect its full texture and depth

Tasting Notes

- Nose: Warm and welcoming, featuring vanilla pod, honey, toasted nuts, and orchard fruits.
- Palate: Rich and rounded, layering shortbread biscuits, baked apples, milk chocolate, and Brazil nuts with warm wood spices.
- Finish: A comforting, nutty warmth with lingering notes of cacao, roasted hazelnut, and dark espresso.

"Dingolfi is more than just a premium whisky; it is the liquid history of a place where different cultures merged," says the Dingolfi Spirits team. "By skipping chill-filtration and keeping the strength at a bold 46%, we make sure every single drop carries the untamed, authentic weight of our northern roots." Dingolfi whisky is available to buy now through partner retailers and online
