At Goldstream Incorporated they work with a diverse group of people, and their diversity contributes to their success. As an expanding firm they are always looking for the next wave of talented individuals who can help take their business forward. They recently started working with an entrepreneur photographer, and MD Dan Coolican is excited by the prospect of helping him to acquire skills and knowledge that will help him to successfully market and promote his business.

“One part of my job I love the most is having the ability to coach and mentor budding entrepreneurs. I get a lot out of helping others. In this industry it is very much about elevating others to success, and that is something I really enjoy. I had a lot of help on my journey to becoming a business owner, and I still do through my networking of fellow professionals. My goal is to assist and encourage as many people as possible, helping them to achieve their dreams,” said Managing Director at Goldstream Incorporated Dan Coolican.

Goldstream Incorporated is an outsourced sales and marketing firm based in Nottingham. As direct marketing specialists, the firm work closely alongside their clients to create unique marketing campaigns, which will accurately represent their products or services to consumers. Goldstream Incorporated develop and maintain these campaigns to produce the best results as well as taking them directly to consumers via face-to-face marketing methods. Their recent success, which saw them expand their client portfolio and break records, can be attributed to their commitment to development and their work with budding entrepreneurs.
