Grill, Chill, and Stay Dry: Colin's Verandas Are the BBQ Hero You Need

Tuesday 10 September, 2024

London (September 10, 2024) – When it comes to BBQ season, nothing throws a wrench in your grilling plans like a sudden downpour or subpar setup. But with the latest product from Colin's Sash Windows—stylishly crafted verandas —you can say goodbye to BBQ blunders and hello to perfectly grilled burgers every time. Your BBQs just got a hero, and it's not the chef—it's the veranda!

How Colin's Verandas Rescue Your BBQs

According to a study from Statista, the top reasons for BBQ failures aren't what you'd expect. A majority of respondents would consider barbecuing more beef and lamb steak regularly if they knew how at 47 percent, while 22 percent have been subjected to burned or undercooked food. A further 18 percent are tired of eating sausages and burgers.

Apart from these reasons with the unpredictable British weather and lots of people wanting to BBQ all year round a veranda can step in to save the day. By providing a well-designed, sheltered space, Colin's verandas protect your outdoor cooking zone from the elements, so even when the weather turns unpredictable, your BBQ is still on track.

More Than Just BBQ Protection: The True Power of a Veranda

But that's not all a veranda does—it's a multi-purpose addition that brings year-round value to your home. Colin's verandas are more than your BBQ solution, they also elevate your outdoor living experience. Verandas provide many benefits, including:

1. Weather-Proof Your Space: Whether you're grilling, hosting, or relaxing, a veranda offers shelter from unpredictable weather, letting you enjoy your outdoor area come rain or shine.

2. Create a Stylish Outdoor Oasis: Our verandas blend seamlessly with your home, providing a beautiful, functional transition between indoors and outdoors. With sleek, customizable designs, you can choose the perfect veranda to enhance your property's look.

3. Expand Your Living Space: A veranda offers an additional area for dining, entertaining, or unwinding with a good book. It turns your patio into a usable space no matter the season, extending your home's footprint and giving you more room to enjoy.

4. Boost Property Value: A well-designed veranda improves your day-to-day lifestyle and increases your home's value by adding an attractive and functional feature.

Colin's Verandas: The Perfect Companion for All Seasons

From summer BBQs to autumn gatherings and cozy winter evenings under the stars, a veranda provides year-round enjoyment. Colin's verandas are constructed using durable materials and expert craftsmanship to withstand the elements and add a touch of elegance to your home. "We know that BBQs can be a challenge—especially when the weather has other ideas," says Colin Greenslade, founder of Colin's Sash Windows. "Our verandas keep the party going, no matter what. Plus, they're a great way to add value and style to any home." If you're tired of your BBQs being rained out or just looking for a way to elevate your outdoor space, Colin's verandas are here to save the day—and your grilling.
