Haag-Streit Academy launch FREE e-learning courses

Monday 27 April, 2020

Harlow, UK – 24th April 2020 - Haag-Streit UK (HS-UK), the leading manufacturer and distributor of gold-standard ophthalmic and optometry equipment, is delighted to be launching FREE training courses on the Haag-Streit Academy E-learning Portal.

The ‘Slit Lamp E-learning Course’ is the first in a series of Haag-Streit Academy courses which will be made available for customers completely free of charge, in response to the COVID-19 pandemic. It can be accessed by users through the Haag-Streit Academy E-learning Portal, which will offer a host of different training material to ensure clinicians are getting the most out of their Haag-Streit ophthalmic devices.

The 'Slit Lamp E-learning Course’ is split into 4 sub-courses, consisting of interactive modules, user guides and short training videos. It covers ‘Slit Lamp Basic Skills’, ‘Slit Lamp Imaging’, a ‘Haag-Streit Diagnostics Video Series’ and ‘EyeSuite User Guides’.

‘Slit Lamp Basic Skills’ covers the fundamentals of slit lamp set up and also focuses on clinical examination, including more advanced techniques such as tonometry and indirect fundoscopy.

The ‘Slit Lamp Imaging’ sub-course focuses on the skills necessary to achieve superior results in the complex field of ophthalmic imaging. The ‘Slit Lamp Exam’ structured training video series will help reinforce the knowledge gained in the two interactive modules.

Finally, the ‘EyeSuite Slit Lamp Imaging User Guides’, provide information about using the EyeSuite i9.3.0.0 software platform in conjunction with Haag-Streit imaging slit lamps and imaging modules.

Grant Duncan, HS-UK Clinical Training Manager, said, “We are delighted to be offering our valued customers a selection of e-learning courses completely free of charge. We are pleased to launch this service with the ‘Slit Lamp E-learning Course’ and hope that customers find it beneficial during these challenging times.”
