?Hanover Private Office Appoints New Director

Wednesday 15 July, 2015

Hanover Private Office is delighted to welcome its latest new directorial appointment - Rory McGougan. Rory has joined the expert team, headed up by Managing director Alex Newall, having previously worked for Beaney Pearce where he focused on the Knightsbridge, Belgravia and Chelsea property markets.

Rory specialises in the acquisition, development and sale of residential real estate in Prime Central London. Since 2009, he has transacted over £400m worth of property across the highly competitive Prime Central London market place, and developed a sound knowledge of the property stock and how it operates.

Rory McGougan comments: "To join such a forward thinking and well-regarded team in a challenging but exciting position, is a great opportunity. As the market in Prime Central London is so niche and competitive, it is more important than ever to distinguish Hanover Private Office from its competitors. Offering accurate market knowledge, attention to detail and an honest dedicated service to clients is imperative. The professional ethos and integrity that Hanover Private Office stands by andmirrors the way I like to work, so my move is very much a meeting of the minds."
