Hertfordshire based social enterprise in need of four wheels to get their show on the road.

Monday 11 September, 2017

Diddy Rascals is the newest kid on the Hertfordshire events circuit, hosting funky, family friendly raves and film events in local venues across the county. All proceeds raised at the events are donated to Hitchin based charity, Humanitas, whose projects support under privileged and orphaned children in Romania and Africa.

But the team are finding it difficult to transport all of the equipment and are reaching out to anyone who may have a transit van or be willing to sponsor a van to help this budding new enterprise to grow.

Events organiser Genevieve Jones-Hernandez says;

‘To re-create the heady days of rave and the thrill of the big screen, we use bubble machines, inflatables, lights and cinema equipment - all of which is packed into several cars that have to be emptied at the end of the day.

It would be amazing to have a van so that we can really get Diddy Rascals on the road and help raise funds for a brilliant charity. If there is anyone out there who thinks they may be able to help us, either by loaning or sponsoring a transit van then we would love to hear from you. Our events are growing fast with more venues planned for next year, so it’s a great time to partner with us and get your brand noticed in towns across the county.’
