Hit A Six With Flights Down Under During The Cricket World Cup From CheapOair

Monday 16 February, 2015

Don't be stumped, head Down Under to soak up the atmosphere of the Cricket World Cup and score a great deal with flight specialist CheapOair.co.uk.

With the tournament taking place in Australia and New Zealand from Saturday 14 February through until the final on Sunday 29 March 2015, there is plenty of time to make sure you don't get caught out and miss the chance to cheer on the home nations.

Head to Melbourne where England took on the hosts on the opening day of the tournament and where the final match will be held on 29 March. The country's spiritual home of cricket and Aussie Rules Football, the city is also referred to as Australia's cultural capital as the home of Australian film and television industries – including the UK's favourite Down Under soap, Neighbours.

Return flights from London Heathrow with Qatar Airways departing on 24 February 2015 and coming back on 9 March 2015 cost from £710.46 per person, including checked baggage and all taxes and charges from CheapOair.co.uk.

Fly to Sydney, where the crucial Pool A match between Australia and Sri Lanka gets underway on 8 March and where England will meet Afghanistan on 13 March. Take in the iconic sights of Sydney Harbour Bridge and the Opera House before kicking back and relaxing on Bondi Beach or trying a spot of surfing.

Return flights from Manchester with Etihad Airways departing on 6 March 2015 and coming back on 18 March 2015 cost from £678.10 per person, including checked baggage and all taxes and charges from CheapOair.co.uk.
