Ho Ho Ho Hike Launch – join The Nimsdai Foundation on a festive charitable adventure!

Friday 7 November, 2025

It’s the most wonderful time of the year, so join the Nimsdai Foundation for their first ever Ho Ho Ho Hike – a 13-mile festive walk through the Dorset, UK, countryside, raising money to support their mountain community projects in 2026.

Starting at 10am from St Cuthburga's Church, Wimborne Minster on Saturday 13th December 2025, this merry community trek is a chance to:

- Burn off a few pre-Christmas calories
- Enjoy mulled wine (or a soft drink,) and a mince pie (or two!)
- Share some laughs and soak up the winter magic

Whether trekkers come dressed as elves, reindeer, or simply in their best (or worst,) Christmas jumpers, this is a chance to spread some festive joy while giving back to a great cause.

Entry: £15 – includes a donation, mince pie and mulled wine

Start: 10am, St Cuthburga's Church, Wimborne Minster, Dorset

Finish: The Rising Sun Inn, 38 East Street, Wimborne (aka Base Camp)

So, whether you're having yourself a merry little Christmas, Yule, Kwanzaa or Hanukkah, make sure you join the Nimsdai Foundation to jingle all the way for a great cause. The ticket price includes a donation that will make 2026 a great year for the mountain communities their projects support.
