

Honour Killing Survivor Speaks Out

Thursday 27 February, 2025

Event: International Women's Day, 8th March 2025

Silent No More is an event which focuses on raising awareness and taking action against Gender-Based Violence.

Nina Aouilk, an honour killing survivor, speaker, and advocate, will share her powerful journey and insights on combating honour-based and gender-based violence.

At this event, Nina will tell her incredible journey, offering hope, practical steps for change, and a deeply personal approach to ending honour-based and gender-based violence.

Her personal story of resilience has inspired many around the world to challenge harmful traditions and support those affected by abuse.

Hosted by Kingston Women's Hub and Vistry Housing, this is an important conversation that needs to be amplified, bringing together survivors, advocates, community members and leaders, to stand united against Gender-Based Violence.

We would like to invite you to do an interview ahead of the event.

We would be honoured if you would also attend the event on International Women's day

Saturday 8th March, 2025.
