

Hope Spring announces Valentine's Day eCards for WhatsApp

Monday 30 January, 2023

Herefordshire based charity eCard platform Hope Spring eCards, today announced the launch of it's Valentine's Day eCards collection. The collection was specially curated for Valentine's Day 2023, it is particularly suitable for the new share to WhatsApp feature, recently implemented on their site.

The announcement was posted on the organisation's social media pages, detailing more than a dozen static eCards and four video ecards. Any of the ecards can be sent to a recipient via email or shared with the recipients using their new WhatsApp eCard feature.

Hope Spring eCards raises money exclusively for water poverty alleviation work, of Hope Spring water. The ecards generate donations for their cause throughout the year, with occasions such as Valentine's Day, Mother's day and Christmas being the busiest time on their calendar.

According to Seun Olonade, the platform manager for Hope Spring ecards "we had some fabulous sets of video eCards created especially for Valentine's Day 2023. They range from a simple heart shaped neon light to something more serious and intense, that someone who may want to propose on Valentine's Day can send". Seun Olonade added "we expect about one hundred or so Valentine's ecard to be sent by our supporters and visitors to our website this year".

Hope Spring eCards valentines video ecard and the static version can be ordered and scheduled for delivery on Valentine's day, or ordered on the day itself. Whether you order for instant delivery or use the scheduled option, you can have your ecard delivered via WhatsApp or email. To find out more about Hope Spring ecard Valentine's Day video and static ecards, visit their website or social media pages.
