Indigo & Verdigris is known for helping interior designers and individuals who value their unique expression so they can experience the first class design at no-frills prices.

Thus, for the first time, Katarina has created an entire product line of her favourite and most popular furniture. The collection will be exclusively sold on the website etsy.com/uk/shop/IndigoAndVerdigris where the limited products are scheduled to sell out by the end of the season.

This functional furniture is designed to showcase modern elegance with luxury that makes anyone with refined taste easily spot the winners. Indigo & Verdigris furniture is a daily reminder of values and qualities everyone seeks in life and an inspiration to enjoy the journey in every moment.

All products come in F&B's Railings colour to capitalize on today's ultimate minimalist trends. The individual designs are highlighted by a renowned artist's hand by using white washes, finest quality finishing waxes and metallic paint. Most items are made from solid wood, such as oak, which gives aesthetically pleasing contemporary, yet timeless, designs for years to come. Katarina's collection also includes retro classics to appeal to those who appreciate this distinct style.

Each individual piece has been named, for example:

- Gabriel – A Touch of Glass
- Krista & Clara
- Edgar
- Louie
- Mortimer

Silver Lining Collection ranges in price from £140.00 to £550.00.

Katarina is excited to welcome her fans to her new handmade product line collection they've been requesting. The new Silver Lining Collection is scheduled to go live on Sunday 28 April 2019.

About Indigo & Verdigris

Katarina Miletic started designing antique and vintage furniture after she was faced with a very real challenge. Indeed, many people face similar struggles, as they do not want to compromise on quality and style, but find that affording the luxury is not an easy task for a family budget to contend with. Absolutely uncompromised in her approach was the experience of joy and connecting people through lasting memories of togetherness. Taking something from an idea and a vision to a physical reality - requires great passion, precision, time, artistry and departure from convention.

After many years of creating bespoke furniture design by hand, and gathering wide circle of people around her pieces, Katarina's products started gaining notoriety amongst the interior design industry and in her local community of style-seekers. Innovation is tradition in Indigo & Verdigris – your partner in elegant living.
