International Children’s Charity to Celebrate 21st Anniversary with Gala Ball

Thursday 6 August, 2015

To celebrate its 21st Anniversary, the UK based children's charity Hope for Children is hosting a Gala Ball at the world famous Café de Paris in London and they are inviting supporters and businesses to attend.

The event titled 'The Gala Ball: Celebrating 21 Years of Hope' will be a celebration of the charity's work around the world and will recognise the incredible achievements of their supporters. The charity aims to raise a minimum of £25,000 from the event to support its projects across 8 countries.

Speaking about The Gala Ball, Chief Executive Murielle Maupoint, said, "In 1994, Dr Bob Parsons OBE and his wife Ann founded Hope for Children with the vision of building an organisation that would help vulnerable children all over the world who were not living the childhood that every child deserves.

"Over the past 21 years, Hope has helped hundreds of thousands of children gain access to education and healthcare, whilst empowering their families to create sustainable futures for themselves. These children face challenges ranging from living and working on the streets to living with HIV. It is because of the support of thousands of volunteers and fundraisers that Hope has been able to transform so many children's lives.

"On Thursday 19th November, we will be celebrating our 21st Anniversary and everything that Hope has achieved in that time. We are looking forward to as many of our supporters as possible joining us and sharing this incredibly special moment in our history."

Whilst enjoying a champagne reception and top class dining, guests will be entertained by magician Sylar Magic and the classic sounds of 60's and 70's Soul by the spectacular live band Soul Town.

Guests will also have the opportunity to secure incredible 'money can't buy' prizes including luxury holidays and spectacular art pieces through a live auction.

The charity currently has a limited number of Early Bird tickets available starting from £120, as well as a number of value for money sponsorship opportunities for businesses.
