Intrafocus is delighted to announce a new Strategy Resource Centre

Thursday 15 April, 2021

Intrafocus is delighted to announce the availability of its online Strategy Resource Centre. The new resource centre has consolidated all of the Intrafocus free strategic planning resources into a single place. Many new resources have been added

"We have always offered free resources on the Intrafocus website, it has been our aim to demystify strategic planning," said Clive Keyte, Director at Intrafocus "as the website grew, the resources were added to various sections. We now have a single repository."

The repository makes it easy for people visiting the website to find and download the resources they need. Intrafocus will continue to add resources over the next few weeks and months.

Resources include

How to create Meaningful KPI
How to Create a Meaningful Strategy
Strategic Planning Workbook
Strategic Planning Template
What is the Balanced Scorecard
Balanced Scorecard Worksheet
Balanced Scorecard RFP
Strategy Map Templates and much, much more

The Intrafocus free strategic resources are augmented by the Intrafocus seven-step strategic planning process (SPP) based on the balanced scorecard methodology.
