United Biscuits (UB), the leading international manufacturer of biscuits, snacks and cakes, has yesterday launched the latest advert for savoury brand Jacob's, in support of its brand new range of bagged snacks, Cracker Crisps.

The new 30 and 20 second adverts air on high profile channels to support the launch of Jacob's Cracker Crisps into the UK.

Available in three variants – Sea Salt and Balsamic Vinegar, Thai Sweet Chilli and Sour Cream and Chive – Cracker Crisps are the flagship NPD for UB in 2015, offering consumers an irresistibly tasty snack, providing the perfect balance between crunch and crisp.

The advert sees Jacob's miniature hero, Jacob the Baker, hitting the campaign trail to eulogise about his new Cracker Crisps. With a nod to famous historical speeches, Jacob convinces the masses that his Cracker Crisps can have all the flavour and satisfying crunch of a crisp.

The £4.25m media campaign, including TV advertising created by Publicis and directed by Ulf Johansson from Smith and Jones, is the latest investment in the Jacob's Masterbrand campaign, which will receive a total of £14m support in 2015.

Ted Linehan, Director of Savoury Brands at United Biscuits, commented: "The response to our investment in the Jacob's Masterbrand campaign has already seen spectacular results, with savoury biscuits up 7% in value year on year, ahead of the 5% market average, not least helped by growth within our core brands such as Jacob's Cheddars (+16% in value YoY) and Jacob's Crackers & Crispbreads (+12% YoY).

"Through Jacob's Cracker Crisps we have used our experience with these brands, alongside targeted consumer insights, to develop a new product that delivers exceptional taste and texture, meeting evolving consumer needs in this space. This is a major launch for UB, cementing our position as the consumer go-to in sharable baked snacks".

The ad is being supported by a full social media, digital and PR programme, including the launch of the UK's first Savoury Cocktail Bar – a two-day pop-up in central London featuring a range of savoury cocktails developed by world-renowned mixologist Matt Whiley, complementing the flavours of the Cracker Crisps. Flavours included: Chilli Con Carne, Plum Spring Roll and Fish and Chips.
