Kloten / Tokio

AstraSana Japan Co., Ltd. has formed a capital and business alliance with Japan's GSI Creos Corporation, bolstered by their investment. This partnership will enhance the wholesale distribution of CBD raw materials across Japan, leveraging the strengths of both companies.

Through this alliance, the AstraSana Group, headquartered in Switzerland, will establish a robust supply chain to deliver Swiss-made, high-quality CBD raw materials across Japan, with a mission is to ensure customers receive safe, reliable products of the highest standard.

Through this alliance, AstraSana Group (headquartered in Switzerland) will establish a stable supply chain to deliver Swiss-made, high-quality CBD raw materials nationwide in Japan. We aim to provide safe and reliable products to our customers.

By leveraging GSI Creos' extensive resources and networks, AstraSana says it will offer even higher-quality services to customers. Based on this robust partnership, it will actively contribute to the growth and development of the CBD market through various approaches.

"At AstraSana Japan, we prioritize safety through third-party analyses, ensure the delivery of superior-quality products, and place customer trust and satisfaction at the heart of everything we do. We are dedicated to enhancing customers' 'Quality of Life' (QOL) while staying at the forefront of technological innovation.

The Potential of CBD in the Japanese Market

CBD (Cannabidiol), a hemp-derived compound, is legally recognized as a safe material in Japan. With global demand on the rise, the opportunities for CBD in the Japanese market are rapidly expanding. This collaboration strengthens AstraSana's supply chain, addressing past challenges, and further promotes the availability of safe and reliable CBD products across the country.
