Justin Bieber Makes It Rain in Guest Appearance at Madame Tussauds London

Monday 19 September, 2016

With a #1 album in over 100 countries, back-to-back worldwide smash hit singles, and a 64-city North American tour that has sold out dates across the U.S. and Canada, Justin Bieber is coming to London in October 2016. As the global superstar prepares to take the 02 by storm with his Purpose World Tour, fans can get their fix of the magnetic musician in a special new experience at Madame Tussauds London. Inspired by the jaw dropping climax from the tour, the experience stars a stunning wax figure of Bieber positioned in front of a spectacular wall of rain in the heart of the world famous attraction.

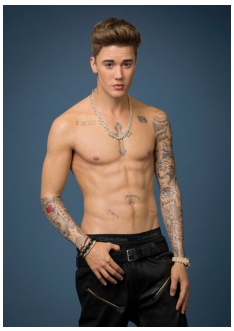

Bieber's daring figure is making a guest appearance from Madame Tussauds Las Vegas and will be in London from Saturday October 22– to Sunday October 30 only. The pose features the 22 year old singing sensation, topless showing his toned torso off to perfection with his trademark tattoos carefully recreated. The figure will star in a limited run experience that will literally make it rain. Rain soaked dancers will join Bieber's figure as his anthem, Sorry, belts out in an energy packed performance worthy of one of the world's most celebrated entertainers.

Performances will run regularly throughout each day. Check www.madametussauds.com/London for full details and to book tickets.
