Laeceum Represents property investors network In Acquisition by Genius Group

Wednesday 23 December, 2020

London, 23 December 2020: London-based advisory boutique Laeceum represented UK-based property investors network Ltd in an acquisition by Singapore-based Genius Group.

The property investors network, founded by Simon Zutshi in 2003, has grown to become the largest property networking organisation in the UK, providing a positive, inspirational and supportive environment where entrepreneurs learn how to become more successful property investors. The company provides a range of learning, networking and training opportunities delivered physically and remotely across the UK that empower entrepreneurs to invest in residential property with knowledge and with skill to help minimise risks and maximise returns.

Genius Group is the world's largest entrepreneur education group, currently valued at US$300 million. The Group is on track to disrupt the current education system by building a 21st century curriculum, faculty, campuses and EdTech platform, for entrepreneurs globally.

Closing remains subject to customary conditions and is scheduled for Q1 2021.
