

Legendary Amnesty Book Sale Returns

Wednesday 5 June, 2019

Amnesty International Book Sale

9am-5pm Saturday 15 June 2019

Church of the Ascension, Dartmouth Row, London SE10 8BF

10 minutes walk up Lewisham Hill from Lewisham National Rail, and DLR Station

The Blackheath and Greenwich Amnesty Book Sale returns for its 45th year. This is a regular event, much loved by the local community and buyers from further afield. The church is filled with tens of thousands of high-quality books at low prices.

Chair of the Group, Rachel Errington, looking forward to the event, says:

"The quality of books is very high and the prices are very affordable. The books are sorted into categories which makes finding that special bargain easier. Books range from second-hand paperbacks to review copies of recently published works."

These book sales are Amnesty International UK's most successful local fundraising event, with over £300,000 raised since they started. There is always a queue of people waiting to get in when the doors open.

Amnesty International works worldwide to protect men, women and children wherever justice, freedom, truth and dignity are denied.

At the book sales there is also the opportunity to participate in the group's campaigns.
