Limitless Communications MD Speaks at Dublin Event

Friday 13 June, 2014

Managing Director of Limitless Communications, Richard Moller, was given the opportunity to be a speaker at a Dublin sales conference on Saturday 7th June. This quarterly event for the outsourced sales industry was held at the Radisson Blu Hotel in Dublin.

The event took place on Saturday 7th June 2014 and was a full day event. Managing Director, Richard Moller was given the opportunity to speak about business expansion opportunities in the Irish market. Using his own experiences from his business, Limitless Communications, he gave a successful and informative speech to his peers from the outsourced sales industry.

The sales conference was held at one of Dublin's most premier locations, the Radisson Blu Hotel. The hotel is in a prime city centre location and holds 150 luxury rooms as well as six meeting rooms, two boardrooms, one video-conferencing suite, three corporate syndicate rooms and an elegant ballroom. The stylish meeting rooms can hold between 200-400 guests and all the rooms have floor-to-ceiling windows that create a fantastic atmosphere with a view over Dublin's city centre. The venue was the perfect place to show off Dublin's business opportunities to people from the outsourced sales industry.

Richard Moller took the opportunity to reference the recent awards his business was presented earlier this year, at an event in London, as an example of the success that can come from business expansion opportunities in the Irish market. Limitless Communications are an outsourced brand marketing and communications specialist firm, set up by Richard Moller. They provide a comprehensive service for all their clients, specialising in brand awareness, customer acquisition and tracking and monitoring results. Having spent the last three years becoming an expert in every aspect of the brand marketing and communication field, Richard Moller took the time to share his knowledge of the Irish market with the attendees of the Dublin sales conference.

"It was one of my first speaking engagements in front of peers from the outsourced sales industry so I was thrilled to be invited to speak. I've worked in businesses through the UK, Ireland and South Africa and my experience leads me to believe Ireland is a great place to run a business due to the country's talent and ambition. I love that Irish people want to evolve their business practices and grow their local economy so the audience at this event were phenomenal" says Richard Moller.
