Liquid Friday Announces Appointment of new Director

Friday 5 August, 2022

Joseph Taffurelli has been appointed as Liquid Friday's newest Director. Joe joined the Board of Directors taking up his new role 25th July 2022.

Joe has worked at Liquid Friday for 10 years and will be working side by side with Liquid Friday CEO Colin Gunnell on developing, shaping, and executing on the businesses upcoming strategies focusing on all that is great about Liquid Friday; its exceptional service, industry knowledge, forward thinking attitude and its people.

Colin says "Having already worked with Joe for many years, I'm delighted to announce his appointment onto the board. He is a massively talented, proven, leader who fully understands the complexities of our industry. I am confident that Joe's insights and ability to drive results will be invaluable to Liquid Friday as we move forward with our plans for growth."

As well as leading the Head Office Operation, Joe has served on the Board of the FCSA in recent years and is a graduate of University of Portsmouth currently studying his MBA. Joe says "It's a real honour to be joining the Board of Directors at Liquid Friday. This is a business that always strives to do the right thing, lead our industry, and shape the future of contracting in the UK. I am excited to take Liquid Friday into its next chapter with Colin and the team!"
