Lobo Digital Launches in London, Offering Free Marketing Services to UK & Ireland Businesses

Tuesday 10 June, 2025

Lobo Digital, a dynamic new branding, web design, and digital marketing agency, today announced its official launch, set to transform the digital landscape for businesses across the UK and Ireland. Founded on the principle of impactful results and genuine client partnership, Lobo Digital is also proud to introduce a unique initiative: free marketing support for Individuals & businesses seeking to enhance their online presence.

Lobo Digital emerges from a deep understanding of the evolving digital ecosystem, aiming to provide comprehensive, data-driven strategies that go beyond aesthetics to deliver measurable growth. Specialising in cutting-edge SEO, targeted digital marketing campaigns, conversion-focused web design, and cohesive branding, Lobo Digital is poised to become a vital partner for companies looking to thrive in the competitive online marketplace.

"Our vision for Lobo Digital is to be more than just an agency; we want to be an extension of our clients' teams, passionately committed to their success," says Marcus Lobow, CEO & Founder of Lobo Digital. "We believe that everyone deserves a strong online presence, regardless of their circumstances. Whether you're a single parent juggling multiple responsibilities, a charity working tirelessly for a cause, or a small business owner struggling to get noticed, we're here to help."

In a move to immediately contribute to the business community and demonstrate their commitment to client success, Lobo Digital is offering free marketing support. This initiative provides businesses with an invaluable opportunity to gain expert insights and actionable advice without initial commitment. Services available under this free support include:

- Free Digital Marketing Consultation: A one-on-one session to discuss current challenges and identify immediate opportunities.
- Free Website Audit: An in-depth analysis of a website's performance, user experience, and SEO health.
- Free Competitor Analysis Snapshot: A brief overview of key competitors' digital strategies to uncover competitive advantages.

Marcus, CEO & Founder of Lobo Digital adds, "We believe in the power of giving back and proving our value upfront. Our free marketing support isn't just a consultation; it's a genuine effort to help businesses identify quick wins and lay the groundwork for long-term digital success. We want to show businesses what's possible when they partner with an agency that truly cares about their growth."

Lobo Digital's comprehensive service offering spans the entire digital spectrum, ensuring a holistic approach to brand building and online visibility:

- Branding: Crafting compelling brand identities that resonate with target audiences.
- Web Design & Development: Creating intuitive, high-performance websites optimised for conversion.
- Search Engine Optimisation (SEO): Driving organic traffic and improving search rankings.
- Paid Media (PPC): Maximising ROI through expertly managed advertising campaigns.
- Content Marketing: Developing engaging content that attracts, informs, and converts.
- Social Media Marketing: Building vibrant online communities and driving engagement.

Lobo Digital is now open for business and inviting UK and Ireland companies to explore their services and take advantage of the free marketing support.
