Local choirs to sing together for cancer charity

Wednesday 14 November, 2018

Choirs from across Bristol and North Somerset will be joining forces this Christmas to raise money for cancer charity, Penny Brohn UK.

The festive fundraiser at Clifton College Chapel on Friday 7 December will see performances from the Bristol Male Voice Choir, High Down Schools, The Voice of Hope and Wellbeing, UWE Gospel Choirs and Penny Brohn UK's very own Penny Brohn Community Choir.

The concert, A Night Before Christmas, is open to the public with doors opening at 6.15pm and the performance starting at 6.30pm. Mulled wine, hot drinks and mince pies will be served during the interval and there will be a chance to win a luxury Christmas hamper and homemade, beautifully decorated, Christmas cake.

Emma Gilmore, Head of Community and Challenge Events at Penny Brohn UK, said: "We are delighted to be back in the magnificent Clifton College Chapel for our Christmas concert this year and with so many talented singers. The choirs will perform classic carols and festive favourites during the evening. All the money raised will help us to support more people living with cancer to live as well as possible for as long as possible."

With over 38 years' experience, Penny Brohn UK recognises that people with cancer need more than medicine. Its Bristol Whole Life Approach provides integrated whole person cancer support that works alongside medical treatment to achieve the best health and wellbeing.

Tickets to A Night Before Christmas cost £10 per adult and £6 for seniors and children under 14.
