Loomis UK announces an extension to award-winning SafePoint range

Loomis, the largest dedicated cash management specialist in the UK, has today announced the immediate availability of Loomis SafePoint Solo – a simple low-cost solution for physical cash management.

The company, which provides cash logistics and management to retail, banks and the public sector, has launched this new solution to support cash handling businesses across the UK.

“We are really excited about the launch of SafePoint Solo - we’ve bundled a graded safe with one weekly cash collection and included our cash processing service for one low fixed cost”, said Simon Wood, Commercial Director at Loomis UK.

“With the challenges faced by retail firmly in mind, SafePoint Solo was developed for a host of businesses - whether they’re starting up, branching out or just locking down their cash security. And the best part is that it is priced from just £99 per month (plus VAT), with no middle-men, consultants or hidden extras - just everything necessary to support their physical cash cycle. We think that’s a pretty strong expression of our support for business in the UK!”

Loomis works with 5,000 customers across the UK to service over 115,000 sites with cash collection and delivery, ATM replenishment and their award-winning SafePoint intelligent cash management solutions.

Announcing the immediate availability of Loomis SafePoint Solo, Head of Product Development, Craig Sherriff said, “The cash ecosystem is changing in the UK – payments as a whole is evolving and so are our customer’s needs. With SafePoint Solo we’ve set out to address them.”

“We set out with a clear goal and have created the simplest, most complete solution we could to meet our customers’ needs and budgets. With SafePoint Solo we’re offering a graded safe indemnified by Loomis, a single weekly cash collection and processing to a maximum of £10,000 per week – all for a price that starts at just £99 plus VAT. SafePoint Solo provides all that’s essential and nothing that isn’t!”
