

LUK Hospitalities completes refurbishment project

Thursday 4 April, 2019

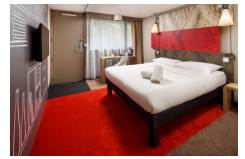

LUK Hospitalities who own and operate ibis Birmingham Irving Street and ibis Coventry South has undergone a dramatic refurbishment of both hotels to bring the 103 guest rooms up to the ibis new brand standards.

Each bedroom has benefitted from the refurbishment and they now offer a modern feel for our corporate and leisure guests. The hotels are both located in the Midlands with great access to major road networks and transport links.

With major events happening in both Cities such as Birmingham hosting the Commonwealth games in 2022 and Coventry being awarded City of Culture in 2021, this is perfect timing for the hotels to showcase their new bedrooms.

Neelabha Chatterjee, Founder and CEO of LUK Hospitalities, has said "I am delighted with the refurbishment and the new look of both hotels. We look forward to welcoming our guests to the hotels and for them to enjoy our new bedrooms".
