Conferences and seminars are fantastic tools for entrepreneurs and business owners to source inspiration and new knowledge. So, for Luke Walker Managing Director of Bamboosh being invited as a guest speaker at a conference run by industry experts was an opportunity not to be missed. Luke Walker attends many industry events and has always enjoyed the guest speaker elements as they often offer the most value to those looking to advance and improve their current business situation.

Taking place in the stunning Hilton Bankside, sitting in the heart of London, Hilton London Bankside is just a stroll away from some of the most visited landmarks in the capital, such as Tate Modern, Shakespeare's Globe and The Shard. The venue boasts a flexible conference space catering for group sizes 8-700: it offers organisers the ability to split the conference into subcategories, allowing tailored itineraries to suit each delegate. The conference will host the industries top performing business owners and entrepreneurs, and it is a fantastic opportunity for Luke Walker to make his mark within the highly competitive market and boost his profile.

Organisers have carefully selected topics suited for new business owners including developing a strong brand and managing online reputation effectively. Attendees will be able to benefit from key networking opportunities throughout their day. Breakout sessions will allow any questions to be addressed in a relaxed environment.

Bamboosh is a Maidstone based company dedicated to combating the sluggish economy.
