

Luxury Goods Company Launch spectacular Charity Auction

Monday 9 December, 2013

Leo and Sons are no strangers to the luxury gift market as their services have been utilised by those looking to source rare and individual items at short notice. This year they are combining their extensive knowledge with their impressive skills of locating the world's finest luxuries and bringing no less than eleven together in one single auction.

Many of the items have been offered singularly in the past, reaching incredible amounts as buyers understand the eminence of owning such products. Now one lucky bidder will enhance their collection with a selection of gifts that are exquisite on their own, almost priceless together.

The gifts have been carefully sourced from around the globe, chosen for their rarity, originality, high profile and popularity as each item is coveted by many. Although the collective sum attributed to this exclusive collection is undoubtedly high, it's clear that the winning bidder will be making an investment that should see them benefit from a healthy return.

The gifts are more than products, they exude a lifestyle, a high flyer luxury celebrity lifestyle that is coveted by people the world over. Due to the rarity of some of the items, the winner will find they become a member of several exclusive clubs, where the criteria for joining is extremely strict.

The Gifts on Offer

This auction combines the gifts that collectors worldwide seek on a daily basis, highlighting the expertise and sourcing skills of Leo and Sons.

The prestigious collection includes:

- A personalised Rolls Royce Wraith, a car heralded as the best model Rolls Royce have ever made.
- A choice of an all-expenses paid trip to Dubai or a chartered Yacht on the Caribbean including a private jet and transfers using luxurious cars.
- His and hers Clive Christian No.1 perfume, scents that are dubbed as the most expensive in the world.
- All of the gadgets featured on the Gadget Show over the last year.
- A sought after solid gold Mont Blanc Picasso pen that sold out within hours of launch.
- A diamond encrusted iPhone 5s
- A Harrods decadence hamper worth £20,000
- A pair of socks
