MAGROUND Launches a Website for Students and 3D Artists.

Monday 17 December, 2018

More and more students are choosing to work in the field of 3D and CGI .The problem: Universities and schools usually do not provide access to image archives with professional, high-resolution data.

MAGROUND, the world`s leading photo agency for images of landscapes, cityscapes and street scenes, 360 ° photos, 360 ° HDR domes and virtual reality environments, has created a solution for this. "PLAYGROUND", is a dedicated websites where every week new image packages are available for download. The image packages consist of background images, HDR domes and 360 ° VR photos for the integration of 3D objects. With these professional assets, the 3D artists can create exceptional imagery for their portfolios.

Jens Müller, Managing Director of MAGROUND about the new service:

"With PLAYGROUND, we want to give young professionals and freelancers the opportunity to refresh their own portfolio with high-end footage and to develop their skills further. The industry will only benefit from this."
