Manchester Photographer Selected to Partner US Firm M&M Tours on Their First Photo Tour of Scotland.

Award winning Manchester photographer Neil Alexander has announced the launch of a new eight day photographic tour of the Highlands and Islands of Scotland.

In partnership with M&M Tours the comprehensive package, aimed at both professionals and keen enthusiasts, includes all transport, hotel accommodation, daily workshops and personalised professional mentoring from Neil.

It's the first time that M&M Tours, the world's leading photo tour operators, celebrated for their international photographic tours of Asia, Africa and the Americas, has chosen Scotland as a destination.

"Neil brings a wealth of inside knowledge to our Scotland trip", says M&M founder Mike Gulbraa. "A seasoned travel photographer and native Scot his creative eye and attention to detail mean that everyone will come home a better photographer. We are honored to have him with us helping our guests capture the essence of Scotland."

The eight day trip will run from 22nd to the 30th April 2014, and will take in the delights of Loch Lomond and the Trossachs, the jaw dropping beauty of the islands of Iona, Mull, Skye and Staffa and the unique architecture and culture of the capital city, Edinburgh.

Says Neil: "Trips with M&M are designed to get you the very best shots from dawn to dusk. The group will be limited in size to between 5 and 10 guests, so everyone will receive the maximum amount of attention possible." He adds, "I'll be providing daily hands-on training, feedback, instruction and photo reviews. If guests are comfortable with their own skills, then that's absolutely fine too."
