Hampshire and Surrey Hills Men's Choir is running a "Taster Evening" at Hogs Back Brewery on 16th April

The Hampshire and Surrey Hills Men's Choir has announced a "Taster Evening" to be run at Hogs Back Brewery on Wednesday 16th April at 6:30 p.m. to encourage men into singing in a choir.

Following a very successful similar event focused around Camberley in 2024, and which led to 15 new members permanently joining, the choir is now inviting men from Farnham and surrounding areas to come along to a fun evening at the iconic home of local Surrey beers – the Hogs Back Brewery at Tongham near Farnham. The choir is seeking both experienced singers and those who haven't even sung since schooldays to have a go. There is no audition to join in, no need to be able to read music and everyone will enjoy a free drink, a snack and a short singing session guided by the choir's exceptional Music Director, Philip Viveash-Brainch. There is no charge for taking part, but pre-booking is requested for catering numbers – at <https://www.trybooking.com/uk/ECIV>.

Announcing the event, Chairman of Hampshire and Surrey Hills Men's Choir, Peter Viveash, said "We are passionate about spreading the word to men about both the physical and mental health benefits of singing in a choir" and added "No one should be nervous about trying us out – we have a great deal of fun while being expertly tutored and supported by our MD".
