Mintz Group Announces Partner Promotions

Wednesday 20 April, 2022

NEW YORK (April 20, 2022) – Mintz Group, a global leader in investigative and due diligence services, is pleased to announce the promotion of Clancy Nolan and Morgan Taylor to Partners.

Clancy Nolan, Investigations and Disputes – New York

Clancy has been an investigator for nearly a decade, specializing in complex litigation and investigating workplace misconduct. She has worked for counsel on matters involving employee misconduct, allegations of money laundering, fraud, and insider trading. Prior to joining the Mintz Group, Clancy was a journalist for Reuters, Dow Jones, Condé Nast and other news outlets.

Morgan Taylor, Investigations, Pre-deal, and Pre-hire Due Diligence – San Francisco

Morgan specializes in managing cross-border investigations into potential partners, transaction targets and executive or board placements. She works with search firms, corporate clients, pension funds, private equity firms and corporate clients across a range of sectors, providing background checks to help clients assess risks associated with hires and transactions. She also oversees investigations for law firms and employers related to issues such as employment disputes, fraud investigations and allegations of workplace misconduct.

“I am delighted to welcome these talented colleagues to our partnership,” said Tim Whipple, CEO of Mintz Group. “Clancy and Morgan are extraordinarily talented investigators, demonstrating a steadfast commitment to clients, colleagues, and the community. I am confident they will continue to make many valuable contributions to the firm in years to come.”
