Mont Blanc Treks to “follow” one lucky winner before, during and after their historic “Tour Du Mont Blanc”

Wednesday 6 June, 2018

Chamonix, Mont Blanc: Mont Blanc Treks are giving a free guided trek of the Tour du Mont Blanc away to their competition winner – and are going to record their personal journey from start to finish.

The Tour du Mont Blanc regularly features in the World’s top ten 'must do' treks and it's not hard to understand why, as this trek is outstanding. With amazing views, well maintained trails - rich with flora and fauna and gastronomic delights to look forward to at the end of each day. Mont Blanc Treks are the local experts in providing both guided and self-guided walking holidays for this route, but they are keen to understand the intimate details of a Client’s personal journey. Where did the desire come from? Why are they doing the trek? What are their fears, goals, aspirations? How will they cope with the preparation, meeting new people and the challenges the tour will bring?

“Covering 170km and 10,000m of ascent, and taking in France, Italy and Switzerland, the TMB is one of the world’s greatest walks, offering trekkers a tough challenge with spectacular scenery” Andrew Gilchrist “The Guardian” Sun 19 Jul 2015

Sara Wild, Director of Mont Blanc Treks & UIMLA Guide has lived in the Chamonix Valley for many years and knows the mountains intimately. Sara knows why she is here and what is gained from walking in this beautiful area of the world. However she is curious to understand these things from her Client’s perspective.

Therefore Mont Blanc Treks are launching a competition giving away a Guided Trek of Tour du Mont Blanc - easterly circuit, from Courmayeur to Chamonix, worth £1485, Setting off on the 6th August 2018. The competition will be advertised to people in June, with the winner being announced on the 6th July, giving one lucky winner just a month to prepare for the journey.

‘Incredible Experience! Incredible Outfitter! '

"My husband, daughter and I made this trek last summer (2017). It was beyond phenomenal. My husband had done this trek 25 years ago and has talked about it ever since. Mont Blanc Treks were fantastic, they provided everything we needed to know to prepare for the experience. We would highly recommend this trek and Mont Blanc Treks outfitter to anyone willing and able to embark on this outstanding experience."

Kim Rice Wilson, Columbus, USA 2017
